

Tucson Earth Day Festival & Parade

Saturday, April 16, 2011

9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

Reid Park – Country Club - just north of 22nd Street

Come Join the Parade

It's FREE!

You or your group can use recycled materials to:

- Create a costume, float or banner
- Floats may be human-powered or use alternative energy: solar, electric or natural gas
- Decorate your bicycle, wheelchair, wagon or yourself!
- Perform music or a dance routine in the parade—or just come watch!

Conserve Today

Preserve Tomorrow

The Parade Starts at 10:00 a.m.

Businesses, government agencies, nonprofits, clubs, professional organizations, youth groups, and families are all encouraged to join the fun. The theme for the 2011 festival is “Conserve Today, Preserve Tomorrow” The parade route is approximately 1/4 mile.

- Nature
- Cleaning up our planet
- Endangered species
- Protecting our natural resources
- Air or water quality
- Anything environmental

Individual & Group Awards

Prizes will be given to winning entries in each category. Anyone with an environmental theme can participate in the festival and parade—elementary, middle school and high school students and teachers, college and university groups, environmental clubs, civic groups, neighborhood groups, families or individuals.
